

Decreasing Mortality on In-Custody Individuals

Outline

Goal: To assist officers in decreasing likelihood of deaths of in-custody persons due to potentiation of substance(s) use, exertion, and co-morbidity factors.

Objectives:

1. Understand effects of different substances on the human body.
2. Understand the effects of emotional and physical exertion on the human body.
3. Understand what co-morbid factors are in our current population.
4. Understand the potentiating effects and potential lethal triad of substance use, exertion, and co-morbidity.
5. How to identify individuals that may have increase chance of mortality during apprehension, intake, or custody.

Timeline

Introduction	0:00-0:05
Scope of Problem	0:05-0:10
Effects of Substances on the Body	0:10-0:30
Effects of Exertion On the Body	0:30-0:40
Effects of Co-Morbid Factors On the Body	0:40-0:55
Potentiating Effects On the Body	0:55:-1:10
Identifying Risk Individuals	1:10-1:30